HOW "GREAT MINDS" ARE OCCUPIED.

CONGRESS MEN LOSE IN A CHILDISH COMPETITION.
REUTERS' "NEWS" SERVICE.

Washington, Yesterday.
Members of the United States Congress were worsted last night in a spelling contest between members of Congress and Washington newspaper correspondents. The Congress men were obliged to retire one by one before stumbling-blocks such as "eleemosynary," "referable," and "stalemate." The last surviving Congress man broke down over the spelling of "kimono," giving it a final "A" instead of "O." A correspondent of a New York newspaper was finally crowned "champion speller of the United States." The contest was broadcast throughout the country and a bell was rung near the microphone whenever a competitor made a mistake.—Reuters' American Service.

DIPLOMATS DROWN DURING STORM.

PANIC-STRICKEN PASSENGERS JUMP INTO LAKE.
ONLY TWO REACH SHORE.

Belgrade, Yesterday.
During a sudden storm over Lake Ohrida a motor boat full of Yugoslav diplomats and their wives, on a pleasure trip, developed engine trouble. The passengers became panic stricken, jumped out from the boat, and tried to swim 200 yards to the shore. Nine were drowned and only two reached the shore alive.—Reuters.

tary, Mr. Henderson, and the Egyptian Premier, Nahas Pasha. After this session it is probable that the negotiations will develop into an expert examination of the existing draft of the treaty. That draft, embodying proposals for a lasting and honourable settlement of the British Egyptian question, was drawn up in agreement by Mr. Henderson and by Mahmoud Pasha and published last August.

Mr. Henderson, who in a covering note described the proposals as representing the extreme limit to which he could recommend to the British Government to go, undertook that if the proposals were ratified by the Egyptian Parliament, he would at once submit them to Parliament in London, with a view to the conclusion and ratification of the treaty carrying them into effect.—British Wireless Service.

GANDHI'S PLANS NOT SUCCEEDING.

RESIGNATIONS OF VILLAGE OFFICERS.
USE OF THREATS.

Bombay, Yesterday.
A Government communique states that the report that large scale resignations of village officers at Gujarat, resulting from Gandhi's campaign in that area, is exaggerated. Only one talati (village accountant) and 74 patels (village headmen and revenue collectors) have resigned. Many since have sought revocation; others, in spite of their resignations, are carrying on. Most of the resignations were obtained through local intimidation, such as the refusal of water, notices of eviction from houses, and other inducements.—Reuters.

SANITARY BOARD.

Director's Lecture on Malaria
PROPAGANDA HUNT.

At to-morrow's meeting of the Sanitary Board the Honourable Mr. J. P. Braga, pursuant to notice, will ask:

"Will the Government undertake the translating into Chinese of the lecture delivered by the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services on the subject of malaria?"

Will the Government cause to be printed, in separate pamphlet form, in English and Chinese, the said lecture for distribution at such times and to such persons and educational and other institutions as may be considered most beneficial in connection with health propaganda in the Colony?"

A minute will be submitted by the President relative to the appointment of a Committee to consider the Estimates for the Sanitary Department for 1931.

Another minute will be submitted by the President relative to the by-laws governing eatinghouses.

Bayer Tablets of Aspirin
A Universal Possession.
Of mankind it is what Aspirin has become, thanks to their untiring efficiency. Billions of sufferers recognize in them the best of pain-killers, and have been freed by them from Headache, Toothache, Rheumatism, Pains in Joints and Limbs, Gout, Chills, Neuralgia and many other painful conditions. But good products are always imitated, and so imitations of Bayer's Aspirin are numerous. Your only guarantee of genuineness is the original package with the Bayer Cross.

Police Seize Delegates' Passports.

Berlin, Yesterday.
The sitting of the World Peasant Congress, representing seventeen countries, was rudely disturbed by the arrival of the Police, who took away the delegates' passports and arrested twenty-five who did not hold passports.
The victims included the Oxford Professor Mitran who has protested to the British Embassy against the confiscation of his passport.
The Police seemed to suspect that the organization was Communist.

CHINESE MARKET

Prospects for British Trade

AN OFFICIAL REPORT

A report on economic conditions in China to September 1, 1929, has just been issued by the Department of Overseas Trade. It contains some rather severe criticisms of British commercial methods in China, for Sir H. Fox, the Commercial Counselor at Peking, states that, after making every allowance for factors which handicap British trade and over which the British manufacturer has little or no control, the home manufacturer, speaking generally, does not pay sufficient attention to the China market, does not exert himself enough to find out what the Chinese really want, does not advertise his goods sufficiently or present them in a sufficiently attractive manner, and does not give the financial assistance to his agents which they can fairly claim, especially when introducing new goods to the market.

He is aware of at least two American firms in the motor trade each of which spends over $100,000 a year in advertising, while on the other hand, he has been told by the agent of a British firm in the same trade that his principals last year, for the first time since he took up its agency five years ago, allowed him a sum of $1,000 for advertising.

Increased Import Duties

Although it is too early to judge with any degree of accuracy of the effect which the increased import duties introduced last year will have on Chinese purchases of foreign goods, it is encouraging to find that, taking the Customs returns as a criterion, they have so far not prejudicially affected the volume of imports. At the same time it is stated that the fears generally expressed that like and similar internal levies would continue to be enforced have been fully realized. Surtaxes on imported goods that have already paid a tariff rate of duty are in fact now levied to a lesser or greater extent in every single province of China. Such burdens include the transportation surcharges on the Government railways, these being usually far higher than the actual cost of transport warrants.

Such taxation, however, carries with it no discrimination as between the goods of one country and another, and it is therefore useful to examine Sir H. Fox's analysis of the progress of import trade in certain leading lines. On the subject of the cotton piece goods trade, which it may incidentally be remarked has suffered from great fluctuations since the report was written, it is significant to read that complaint is heard on all sides in China that the steady increase in taxation is restricting the consumption of everything beyond the absolute necessities of life, and that the purchasing power of the people has been greatly reduced. The cumulative effect of all sorts of intermediate charges has been to raise the price of many of the better class goods beyond the means of the impoverished inhabitants of the interior districts.

Interior Taxes Hamper Trade.
With regard to wool textiles, although the higher scale of duties has had a temporary effect in reducing business, there is no doubt that the demand for such goods is now firmly established, and it is not therefore expected that trade will be crippled. Yet the increasing taxes in the interior are a serious matter, and it is estimated that the effect of such levies has been to reduce clearances and distribution of wool textiles from Shanghai by one-third.

The slight increase in the import duty has had no effect on the rayon trade generally, which is steadily increasing, and the low level of prices has encouraged the development of various new channels of consumption. It is added that for ladies' wear in particular there should be an increasing demand for artificial silk stockings and dress fabrics, as the modern Chinese girl yields not an inch to her Western sister in the matter of the shortness of her skirts or the skimpiness of her frocks. It is disappointing to find that British yarns have not yet succeeded in gaining any noteworthy proportion of the trade, chiefly on account of the great disparity in prices.

Outlook for Engineering.
The report gives a short review of the machinery and engineering trade, and admits that during the past few years the dominant position once held by the United States has been steadily eroded, and that an ever-increasing share is being secured by Germany and the United Kingdom. It is pointed out, however, that the Chinese market is still largely unexplored, and that the British manufacturer has much to gain by a more active and systematic approach to the problem.

in which the price factor carries the greatest weight. The United States has an additional advantage in her geographical position. An incentive to further effort on the part of British engineering firms is found in the reminder that at present a country of over 400,000,000 inhabitants is importing annually machinery and industrial plant to the value of only $4,000,000. It is said that while China may within the next decade go far towards making herself independent of foreign supplies in the matter of clothing and food-stuffs, it will be many years before she can attempt to make for herself the various forms of delicate and complicated machinery which her industries will require.

In this connection an examination might usefully be made of the direction of the expansion of China's manufacturing industries, of which the report gives a short description.

Improvement in Railways.
The marked improvement which has taken place in the railways, which are once more running with fair regularity, is ascribed to the staff of the new Ministry of Railways, who have worked hard to rescue them from the military. The great problem now to be faced is their rehabilitation and reconditioning, the cost of which is estimated at $6,000,000 at least. If and when the necessary funds can be raised, the administrations may see their way to settling their long-overdue accounts, and British firms may look forward to a fair share of the orders for material.

It should perhaps be added that since the report was written the fall in the price of silver has introduced another obstacle to the import trade of China.

The resignation of Sir H. Fox is now announced and the Department of Overseas Trade records its appreciation of his valuable services. The headquarters of the Commercial Diplomatic Services in China are being moved from Peking to Shanghai. Mr. H. J. Brett is being promoted to be commercial secretary, first grade, with the local rank of commercial counselor.

DOCTOR AS DENTIST

Veteran Physician Wants to Aid Eskimos

A less ambitious man probably would feel that his life had been full if he had been a Lincoln booster in 1860 at the age of 11; travelled across the plains, the Rocky and Cascade mountains with a prairie schooner train in 1882; after studying medicine in Chicago; homesteaded a farm in the richly timbered area of Port Angeles, Wash., starting in 1888, at the same time acting as physician, surgeon and general counselor for other homesteaders of the district; been a country doctor from 1891 to 1909; travelled the expanses of Alaska as a physician and school teacher for the Federal Board of Education; served four years as a lieutenant in the Canadian medical corps in Palestine during and after the world war; isolated himself in 1921 at Shishmareff, near Kotzebue Bay, about 250 miles north of Seward, Alaska, and then stayed three years on Little Diomed Island, between Seward and Siberia, to return to the United States in December, 1929.

But not so Dr. G. A. Thompson. When the tall, lanky physician, who acts as if he might be 40 instead of 80, landed in Seattle early in December on the Bureau of Education supply ship, The Boxer, it was not with the idea of settling down and spending the remainder of his years in idleness.

Returning to Alaska.
"I expect to go back to Alaska next August," Dr. Thompson said, as he was leaving Seattle for California, "but before then I am going to take a short course in filling teeth and fitting glasses. The natives of the Arctic circle need glasses, but so far they have been getting nothing but the cheap lenses brought by small traders and they are worse than none at all."

Before the white man invaded the Eskimos' homes they had the most wonderful teeth in the world. But they have learned to eat the white man's food and that means trouble with their teeth.

CANED BOY FAINTS

Angry Mother Summons Head Master

Frederick G. Rogers, head master of Meads County School, Eastbourne, was summoned at Eastbourne for assaulting Arthur Standen, aged 14, a school boy. The proceedings were brought by the boy's mother, who stated that Standen was caned by Rogers on the back of his neck and the father was summoned to appear at the court on the charge of assault. CRICKET.

All League Games But One Postponed.

CLUB DE RECREIO'S FORTUNE

Ground conditions, after the downpour of the last few days, were responsible for the postponement of all but one of the fixtures down for decision in the Cricket League on Saturday.

Club de Recreio accounted for the Police R.C. in Division II, and are now at the top of the table, being one point ahead of the Hong Kong C.C. 2nd (holders). The latter, however, have one match in hand (which is against the Indian R.C. 2nd), which they must win to retain the championship. In the event of a draw, the two leaders will tie for first place, in which case there will be a play-off, but should the H.K.C.C. lose to the I.R.C., the Junior Shield will go to the Recreio.

The Indians are at the top of their form just now and might bring off a surprise victory.

League II

RECREIO V. P.R.C.

At King's Park, the Club de Recreio defeated the Police R.C. by 26 runs.

Battling first, the home team compiled 102, L. J. Gutierrez being top-scorer with 27, while H. M. Xavier and Barros helped with 23 and 22. T. H. King (4 for 19) returned the best analysis for the visitors.

Sousa and Pereira were in fine form with the ball and were greatly responsible for the dismissal of the Police for the small total of 76.

BOXING.

Marine Smith to Fight Here?

The China Mail learns that at the next local boxing tournament to be held under the auspices of the H.K.B.A., it is probable that A. B. Bowles, local heavyweight champion, will be matched against Marine Smith, of H.M.S. Hermes.

Marine Smith, achieved quite a reputation in Shanghai recently by knocking out Kid Andre, the Russian slugger, in one round. Andre is no mean performer, as previous to his bout with Smith, he had made Jack Craigton bite the dust in a few rounds.

According to a Shanghai correspondent, Andre, for a little while after his defeat was drifting for a new opponent, but after thinking the situation over, decided that Smith would be better left alone.

It is hoped that Marine Smith, who is known here, will be matched against Bowles, the local champion, in the next tournament. The latter is expected to be in the city by the end of the month, and it is believed that the match will take place in the next few days.

JAPANESE WOMEN

To Compete at Olympic Games

For the first time in history a team of Japanese women will be seen in an athletic meeting in Europe. The Federation of Feminine Sports in Japan has definitely decided to dispatch a contingent of five girls to the Third Women's Olympic Games in Prague, the capital of Czechoslovakia, next September.

Twice in the past, at the Second Women's Olympic Games in 1926 and the World's Olympic Games in Amsterdam in 1928, the women of Japan were represented by a team but the team on both occasions was Miss Kinue Hitomi herself. This year if she is chosen again, she will have other companions of her own sex to make the trip to Europe.

A coach and a manager will accompany the team to Prague. Their total expenses are expected to be about ¥25,000. The bulk of this sum, it is hoped, will be put up by the 400,000 students in the 800 girls' schools throughout Japan. It is planned to have each student contribute ten sen to the Olympic fund. Individual contributions from other sources will also be forthcoming, and the Education Department is expected to donate its share.

The team will be chosen on the results of the Seventh Japanese Women's Olympic Games in the Kansai on May 10 and 11. Seven or eight girls will be tentatively named for the team, and out of these the five to be sent to Europe will be selected before July 20, when they are scheduled to leave Japan.

Miss Kinue Hitomi, it is hoped, will be prevailed upon to head the Olympic team. It will be remembered that the celebrated athlete announced her intention to retire from competitive sports at the end of last year. Her announcement, however, is not expected to take effect until after the International Women's Olympic Games next September. In all probability she will consent to represent her country again, even though it may be for the last time.

In the Second International Women's Olympic Games at Gothenburg, Sweden, Miss Hitomi ran off with the highest individual

All League Games But One Postponed.

CLUB DE RECREIO'S FORTUNE

Ground conditions, after the downpour of the last few days, were responsible for the postponement of all but one of the fixtures down for decision in the Cricket League on Saturday.

Club de Recreio accounted for the Police R.C. in Division II. and are now at the top of the table, being one point ahead of the Hong Kong C.C. 2nd (holders). The latter, however, have one match in hand (which is against the Indian R.C. 2nd), which they must win to retain the championship. In the event of a draw, the two leaders will tie for first place, in which case there will be a play-off, but should the H.K.C.C. lose to the I.R.C., the junior Shield will go to the Recreio.

The Indians are at the top of their form just now and might bring off a surprise victory.

League II

RECREIO V. P.R.C.

At King's Park, the Club de Recreio defeated the Police R.C. by 26 runs.

Battling first, the home team compiled 102, L. J. Gutierrez being top-scorer with 27, while H. M. Xavier and Barros helped with 23 and 22. T. H. King (4 for 19) returned the best analysis for the visitors.

Sousa and Pereira were in fine form with the ball and were greatly responsible for the dismissal of the Police for the small total of 76.

Marine Smith to Fight Here?

The China Mail learns that at the next local boxing tournament to be held under the auspices of the H.K.B.A., it is probable that A. B. Bowles, local heavyweight champion, will be matched against Marine Smith, of H.M.S. Hermes.

Marine Smith, achieved quite a reputation in Shanghai recently by knocking out Kid Andre, the Russian slugger, in one round. Andre is no mean performer, as previous to his bout with Smith, he had made Jack Brighton bid, the Austin, a few rounds.

According to a Shanghai correspondent, Andre, for a little while after his defeat, was threatening for revenge, but after thinking the situation over, decided that Smith would be better left alone.

It is to be shown that Marine Smith, who is little known here, will be a very tough opponent, and that Bowles, as in Bowles (Glasgow), the local champion, will be a very tough opponent, and that Bowles, as in Bowles (Glasgow), the local champion, will be a very tough opponent.

JAPANESE WOMEN

To Compete at Olympic Games

For the first time in history, a team of Japanese women will be seen in an athletic meeting in Europe. The Federation of Female Sports in Japan has definitely decided to dispatch a contingent of five girls to the Third Women's Olympic Games in Prague, the capital of Czechoslovakia, next September.

Twice in the past, at the Second Women's Olympic Games in 1926 and the World's Olympic Games in Amsterdam in 1928, the women of Japan were represented by a team but the team on both occasions was Miss Kinuo Hitomi herself. This year if she is chosen again, she will have other companions of her own sex to make the trip to Europe.

A coach and a manager will accompany the team to Prague. Their total expenses are expected to be about ¥25,000. The bulk of this sum, it is hoped, will be put up by the 400,000 students in the 800 girls' schools throughout Japan. It is planned to have each student contribute ten sen to the Olympic fund. Individual contributions from other sources will also be forthcoming, and the Education Department is expected to donate its share.

The team will be chosen on the results of the Seventh Japanese Women's Olympic Games in the Kansai on May 10 and 11. Seven or eight girls will be tentatively named for the team, and out of these the five to be sent to Europe will be selected before July 20, when they are scheduled to leave Japan.

Miss Kinuo Hitomi, it is hoped, will be prevailed upon to head the Olympic team. It will be remembered that the celebrated athlete announced her intention to retire from competitive sports at the end of last year. Her announcement, however, is not expected to take effect until after the International Women's Olympic Games next September. In all probability she will consent to represent her country again, even though it may be for the last time.

In the Second International Women's Olympic Games at Gothenburg, Sweden, Miss Hitomi ran off with the highest individual

Honours at the meeting by winning the largest number of points among the athletes from the world's four continents, to that unique athlete, the Chinese, who, in the event of a draw, would have been the champion.

LOCAL FOOTBALL

Navy and Athletic Just Given the Verdict

SOMERSETS' JUNIORS BIG WIN.

Full of lively interest, the contest between the Police and the Navy ended in a victory for the latter by the odd goal in five. Assuming that the Navy will be awarded the two points from Kowloon the Senior Service completed their programme on Saturday and now head the League Table and, if the "Sets" can master the Athletic, the Navy will be this season's champions.

By the only goal scored the Chinese Athletic took both points back to the Stadium. That result is a fair reflection of the game, for South China's strength is in the rearguard while the Athletic's might is in the front line.

The Somersets recorded a good victory over Kowloon by three goals to one, while St. Joseph's and Recreio shared the spoils.

Of the Juniors the "Sets" registered nine goals without response from Kowloon. The Navy surprised supporters by failing to score against Eastern, in spite of their many chances. S. China "A" beat the Club by three goals to one and Chinese "A" found S. China "B" net once only. The Ewo versus St. Joseph's game was not played. Chinese "B" were vanquished by the University by four goals without response.

GOVERNMENT NOTICES

ON AND AFTER APRIL 1, 1930, all Importers and Exporters of Merchandise will be required to declare the nature, amount, and value of the goods imported or exported by them. The declarations are to be made on the import and export declaration forms supplied by the Statistical Office, 2nd floor, Beaconsfield Arcade, where forms in English or Chinese can be obtained.

In filling up these forms, the following points should be noted: "Manner of arrival" or "departure" need only be indicated when goods enter or leave by rail, road, or air. "Description" should follow as closely as possible the classification list which will shortly be published: price 60 cents, obtainable at the Statistical Office. "Weight or measurement" should be given according to the classifier used in the list for each type of goods. "Value" of imports should be the cost of goods as landed, in Hong Kong dollars: of exports, the cost as shipped. "Country of origin" means origin in present condition, not origin of raw material. Where the country of origin is unknown, the country of shipment should be given. Different classes of goods, or cargo by different steamers, may be entered on a single form if desired, but import and export cargo must be kept separate. The completed declarations must reach the Statistical Office not more than 7 days after bills of lading have been presented at the shipping office (in the case of imports): or, for exports, after the ship carrying the cargo has left the harbour. Thus any firm wishing to send in declarations weekly can do so. They may be sent by messenger or by post.

To enable shipping companies to make their returns, all documents presented to them by importers and exporters, such as bills of lading, mates' receipts, etc., must bear the name and address of the person or firm presenting them clearly stamped or written.

W. SCHOFIELD,
Assistant Superintendent,
Imports and Exports Office.

NAUGHTY GENERALAdvice to Chang Fa-kuei to Surrender*ENEMIES "OFFICIALLY"

Canton, Saturday.
With the object of effecting an early liquidation of the Kwangsi rebellion, General Chan Chai-tong, together with five ranking commanders of the 8th Route Army, has despatched a frank and friendly-worded letter characteristic of the C.I.C. to Chang Fa-kuei of the Ironsides, strongly advising him to ponder carefully over his present precarious position and to surrender without further delay to the National Army by severing all his relations with the Kwangsi insurgents. The following is a summary of its contents:

"Three years have elapsed since our last meeting. We were glad to be in receipt of your personal letter, conveyed to us by your representatives Wang Chao and Sze-to. At first we presumed that Messrs. Wang and Sze-to were the bearers of seasoned reflections, concerning the welfare of the country and the people, but to our great disappointment, we were informed only of the counter-revolutionary strength of Yen Hsi-shan, and advised to revolt against the Central Government. In order to prevent your representatives actively disseminating such mistaken views about, we are obliged to detain them temporarily.

"Officially, we are enemies, but as friends, we do not wish to see you in a helpless mess. You will remember that three years ago you specially wrote us a letter, requesting our co-operation to drive Li Chung-jen and Wong Shao-hung (Kwangsi Clique) out of Kwangtung, in order to preserve the peace and order of the province, and declaring that, after achieving success, you would continue your activities elsewhere, and would not return with forces to Kwangtung. At that time, we were doubtful about the loyalty of Li and Wong, but our suspicion was confirmed shortly afterwards, when they revolted at Hankow against the Central Government. We appreciated then your ability in anticipating political events; but we were subsequently shocked to find that you yourself soon followed their example. Furthermore, much to our great surprise, you proceeded later to line up with Li and Wong, who were known to be your bitter enemies.

Hence we are at a loss to understand how you could lower yourself by forming such connection. Perhaps you were labouring under the delusion that with your army of 20,000 strong, in addition to Li and Wong's forces, you felt certain of victory. But instead, defeat followed all your sacrifices. Is it not time that you should seek some way for your own protection? Otherwise you would share the same fate as other militarists—destruction. In other words, even if you were lucky to crown your efforts with victory, you would sooner or later be exterminated by Li and Wong for their selfish interests.

The "Red" Tragedy.
"You are a Cantonese, and it is your duty to relieve your fellow provincials from calamity; but on the contrary, you inflicted on them untold sufferings at every place that you and your soldiers had visited. The 1927 Red Tragedy in Canton was a terrible affair for which you yourself should hold the entire responsibility. The deaths of innocent people were too numerous to recount; orphans and widows of the murdered are still crying out your name as the cause of all their misery. If you had any conscience, you should have felt deeply sorry for that catastrophe. But instead of repentance, you again caused more calamity last year by tramping upon the people with the iron heels of your soldiers along the West River districts. During the last engagement at Fuyuan, the loss of civilian lives and property was incalculable; we leave to the historian to comment on whom lies the cruel deed.

Simple Minded Militarists.
"In regard to the recent affairs of the Party and the country, the Reorganizationists are co-operating with politicians, militarists, the Western Hill Clique and even the Communists, in order to overthrow the Central Government. They have no actual strength, but make use of the simple minded militarists as a tool. The peaceful unification of the country is the most urgent need at present. Those who seek to frustrate this and will certainly be destroyed by the National Army.

LOCAL BOOTLEGGERSBut Offering Nothing
Stronger Than Music.*PRETTY MEN ARTISTES!

A band of about 25 of the younger members of the Club de Recreio presented what was styled the "Bootleggers' Revue" at the Club-house, King's Park, on Saturday evening to a large audience numbering about 500.

Six of the artistes were dressed as girls and "did their stuff" so well that for a long time it was difficult to convince many of the audience that they were mere masqueraders.

Talkie "Hits".
The programme, which included 17 items, was a decidedly jazzy one and included such popular songs as "Singing in the Rain," "The Wedding of the Painted Doll," and "Hits" from the Hollywood Revue and other similar "talkies" which were recently shown in Hong Kong. The stage was in a riot of colours and made a very appropriate setting for the show, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

After the review, dancing was indulged in until a late hour to music supplied by the Lyric Dance Band, under the direction of Mr. "Dick" d'Almada.

LOSS TO COLONY.Departure of Major C.
Willson.

Major Christopher Willson, O.B.E., who has been in the service of the Government since 1920, proceeded home on Saturday on leave, on the expiry of which he will proceed to Shanghai as Captain Superintendent of Police.

As First Clerk of the Magistracy and as Acting Second Police Magistrate on numerous occasions, Major Willson has invariably been found of great service to the Press, the members of which always found him most accessible and obliging.

The China Mail joins in the numerous expressions of regret at the loss to the Colony entailed in his appointment in Shanghai, and wishes him a pleasant holiday and every success in his new sphere.

MR. W. J. CARRIE.Departure on Home
Leave.

Mr. W. J. Carrie, M.A., B.Sc. (Edin.), accompanied by Mrs. Carrie and their two children, left for home on Saturday by the P. & O. s.s. Rawalpindi. Mr. Carrie will, it is believed, spend some of his time at home studying Census methods of organisation as Census Commissioner for the Colony on his return in the Autumn.

Mr. Carrie, who arrived in the Colony as a Cadet on January 1, 1915, has seen much varied service here, in addition to military service in 1918-19. He has been Assistant Colonial Secretary and Clerk of Councils, Assistant Colonial Treasurer and Assistant Assessor of Rates, Second Assistant Colonial Secretary, Secretary of the Sul An Piracy Commission (1922), Acting Superintendent, Botanical and Forestry Department, Secretary, Stocks and Shares Commission (1925), head of the Sanitary Department, and Secretary, Salaries Commission.

It is expected that on his return from leave he will devote himself entirely to preparations for the Census to be taken in March or April next year.

MAN'S "DOUBLE"Impersonation and a Strange Sequel

A remarkable story of impersonation was revealed in a Budapest Court when a man was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for impersonating George Vida, a wealthy landowner.

Vida recently left his luxurious Budapest home to spend two months in his country estate.

His servants were greatly surprised when Vida's "double" appeared the same day and declared that urgent business had recalled him to town.

The real Vida returned unexpectedly a fortnight later and was dumbfounded to see the impostor entering his own car outside the gate. He summoned the police and the impostor admitted his guilt.

But there was a most dramatic turn in the case after the sentence when the impostor unexpectedly became heir to a considerable fortune which enabled him to buy his liberty by amply compensating Vida.

FREE VARSITIESStrange Situation in Educational Circles*FEES NOT PAID FOR YEARS

Peking, March 13.
That students in the great majority of Government Universities in Peking have not paid their tuition fees for years, was revealed by a spokesman of the Peking University student body in a reception for the Tientsin Chinese Pressmen on Wednesday afternoon. This is used as a justification for their refusal to pay tuition, which brought about the present crisis in the Tientsin University.

The student leader pointed out that being a national university Peking is on the same footing as Government educational institutions in the ancient capital, and that if students of the latter do not pay their tuition, they should be entitled to the same treatment.

It is confirmed in local educational circles that many of the Universities have not been able to collect tuition fees from their students for years, and that whenever the authorities attempt to collect the fees, they are immediately threatened with strikes. At Peking the tuition charges for university students are $30 per year and $20 for one in the preparatory department. These are considered trifling as compared with those charged by private universities like Yenching and P.U.M.C.

Peking students enjoy another privilege not possessed by students in Peking and other parts of the country. This is that they can borrow text books from the University book store throughout their four years of residence in the University. If they want to buy them upon graduation, they are given a fifty per cent. reduction. This enables the poorer students to pursue their studies without providing for their books, which is usually a very heavy item in student expenditures in other institutions.

The student spokesman also stated that this was the fifth time that President Mao Yi-shen had tendered his resignation since he assumed office about a year ago. Mr. Mao has inserted a notice in the vernacular press saying that he has wired his resignation to the Ministry of Education in Nanking and is ready to hand over his duties.

Chinese newspapers appear to support the stand of the University in insisting that the students should pay for their tuition, but some journals express regret that the President should now go to the extreme course of suspending class work in order to enforce compliance with the regulations of the university.—Kuo Wen.

UGLY BUFFALOBetter Used by Chinese
Than Malays

Some interesting facts about the Malayan buffalo—a breed which reached this country via Siam—were given by Mr. R. Macgregor, M.R.C.V.S., Government Veterinary Surgeon in Pahang West, in an official memorandum on rinderpest.

The following is reprinted from the Malayan Agricultural Journal:—
The Malayan buffalo is essentially a swamp animal and is used principally for paddling low-lying land, preparatory to padi (rice) planting. The Malay regards the animal as his mainstay. In the preparation of land for rice growing, the production of meat for the local market, apparently, he never considers. He only kills an animal on special occasions such as festival days. Ordinarily he demands such a price for his buffaloes that they cannot compete with the imported Siamese stock for beef purposes.

After the padi is planted, the buffaloes are often prevented from going into swamp areas; they are thus deprived of their natural pasturage and their water holes for wallowing. For these reasons they rapidly lose condition and such animals are bound to have a reduced life on their breeding.

If it is impracticable to permit the animals access to water holes or swampy land for fear of damage to the growing crop, then it is necessary to throw water over them twice daily and ensure also that they have sufficient fodder to maintain their condition. A little concentrated food would in all probability be economical to feed under the above conditions, as by maintaining the animals in fair condition they are far more likely to breed.

Suited for Jungle Work.
The buffalo is used extensively by Chinese wood-cutters for hauling timber from the jungle. Such work is suited to them as it is performed in the close humid atmosphere of the jungle; further, they can exert a heavy pull on soft ground.

The Chinese, who use these animals for hauling timber, usually spend time and money on their welfare and ensure that their stock have sufficient fodder and often supplement it with concentrated foods. Such animals may be observed to be in prime condition and are capable of hauling heavy logs of timber. They have the reputation of being more immune to rinderpest than those owned by Malays. If they do become affected they are reputed to have greater powers of resistance. It is more likely, however, that they are less liable to become affected as they are often stall-fed or kept confined to small areas, whereas the buffaloes owned by Malays are permitted to ramble about the country-side, uncared for, in poor condition and far more likely to pick up any disease.

In conclusion, it may be remarked that the Chinese owner of buffaloes has realised that his animals repay him for the extra care and attention he bestows on them. There is little doubt that the Malay owner would obtain a far greater output of work and a faster increase in growth and numbers of his herd if he would devote the ordinary care that it is necessary to give to domestic animals.

CANTON'S CENSUS.Total Less Than One Million.*442 FOREIGN RESIDENTS.

According to the latest census compiled by the Bureau of Public Safety, the approximate number of population in Canton is in the neighbourhood of 820,000, and the 6th, 8th and 9th districts are the most thickly-populated parts while the 4th and 7th districts have the smallest number of residents.

The number of foreign residents in the city is given as follows:—

Nationality	Male	Female	Total
British	58	68	126
Japanese	27	14	41
German	40	73	113
American	17	63	80
Portuguese	14	23	37

LAWYERS IN CHINA.First Foreigner Admitted to Practice*MR. F. J. SCHUHL.

Shanghai, March 24.
Mr. F. J. Schuhl, the well-known American attorney and senior member of the law firm of Messrs. Schuhl and Lorton, has the distinction of being the first foreign attorney to be admitted to practice in the Chinese courts of Shanghai and Nanking now being organised, according to a circular word brought yesterday from Nanking.

The Nanking Government recently announced conditions under which foreign attorneys will be permitted to practice in the Shanghai District Court and other Chinese tribunals being formed under the recently concluded agreements in connection with the Provisional Court of Shanghai which shortly will cease to function.

SHIPPING SECTION.

NO DECK LINES.

Four Masters Charged and Cautioned.

Mr. N. W. Walker, master of the s.s. Kwong Tung, Kwok Lai, master of the s.s. Chuen Lee, Mr. C. R. Benstead, master of the s.s. San Nam Hol, and Captain Prigent of the s.s. Taisan, were charged before Comdr. G. F. Hole R.N. at the Marine Court this morning with not having the deck lines marked on their vessels, on March 28. All pleaded guilty to the charge. Comdr. Hole said that as he had dismissed the cases that came up last Saturday, and as the owners had not had the time to make the necessary arrangements over the week end, he would dismiss them with a caution.

H.M.S. SOMME.

Strikes an Uncharted Rock.

A Naval wireless report states that while H.M.S. Somme was out at sea on Saturday she struck an uncharted rock. No material damage was sustained by the hull and the ship returned to Hong Kong under her own power.

The accident is to be all the more regretted inasmuch as it was only recently that the destroyer Seraph—not Serapis as stated in reports elsewhere—also struck an uncharted reef, necessitating considerable repairs that have only just been completed.

The Somme is a destroyer of 1,075 tons, with 27,000 indicated horse power. She carries three 4-inch guns.

WARSHIPS IN PORT

British warships in port this morning were—in Basin of R.N. Dockyard: Tamar, Bridgewater, Herald, Troquois, Seaworm, Moth.

North Arm: Serapis, Sandwich, Marazion, Sepoy.

West Wall: Stormcloud, Seraph, Somme.

No. 1 Buoy: Hermes.

No. 6 Buoy: Suffolk.

No. 13 Buoy: Bruce.

Foreign men-of-war in port were:—U.S. gunboat Minuteman.

Portuguese Cruiser Adamastor.

Chinese Training Ship Tung Chi.

Chinese Gunboat Kien Yu.

SOVIET SHIPPING DEAL IN U.S.

The sale of thirty Shipping Board vessels, with the understanding that they would be operated under foreign registry and used in Russian trade between Leningrad and Russian ports on the Black Sea, the Persian Gulf and Siberia, is announced.

No change in the Government's policy of non-recognition of the Soviet regime was involved, as the sale was made by Mr. Johann Ohlsof, of New York, a director of the Amtorg Trading Company, who is an American citizen.

The purchase price was 1,471,000 dollars ($294,200).

SHIP AGROUND.

Kosai Maru Breaking Up.

Chefoo, Saturday. The Kosai Maru, en route from Wel-hal-wei to Chefoo, went aground on an island off Kung-tung-tao Spit in fog on Thursday night.

Distress signals were communicated from the lighthouse and the Customs despatched a harbour tug in charge of Captain Hardy and a pilot.

The tug rescued 124 passengers and later returned with a lighter which took off the compressed staff and a limited amount of cargo.

The captain and crew of the Kosai Maru remained on board, but the position of the ship became so dangerous that it was necessary to send out further distress signals. The tug again went out in reply to these and in a rough sea performed the hazardous work of rescuing the captain and the crew in the early hours of the morning.

The Kosai Maru, which is insured, is expected to break up—Reuter.

OFFICE THEFTS.

Chinese with Forty Pawn Tickets.

RIDICULOUS PLEDGES

Remanded by Mr. R. E. Lindsell on Friday because the Police wanted time to make inquiries with regard to 41 pawn tickets which were found in his possession, the Chinese office breaker made another appearance in Court this morning in connection with three larceny charges against him which he had already admitted, as under:—

From the Canton Trading Association, fifth floor, China Building, a gramophone, a silver cornet, and a camera.

From the Mitsui Chosen Kaisha, Pedder Building, a wall clock.

From the Texas Oil Company, Queen's Building, an alarm clock, and a Buddha curio.

The properties named in the three charges were valued at $250.

Detective-Sergeant M. Murphy to-day informed His Worship that he had been unable to trace the owners of any of the articles relating to the pawn tickets found on the accused.

The total of money raised on the pawned articles did not exceed $100. Some of the articles had been pledged for $1 or $2, which was ridiculously below their actual value.

His Worship registered convictions on all three counts of larceny against the accused and passed sentence of two months' hard labour on each count, the terms to run consecutively.

TAIKOO MISHAPS.

Three Chinese Workers Injured.

No fewer than three accidents occurred at the Taikoo Dockyard during the week-end. All the victims were Chinese and at least one is in a critical condition at the Government Civil Hospital, where all three were taken.

The serious case was Lo Ying (46) a paint scraper, who received a fracture of the skull as the result of accidentally falling off a staging whilst he was at work on board the s.s. Mashima Maru, which is in dry dock.

Mak Yiu, a coolie, received painful injury to his face as the result of being accidentally hit with a hammer wielded by a feld whilst working in the workshop.

The third victim was another coolie named Cheung Sing. His right hand was badly crushed through being caught between two trucks, one of which he was helping to wheel in the dock. Both trucks were heavily laden.

ARAB DELEGATION.

FIRE ON STEAMER.

Spectacular Scene Off
Wanchai

BRIGADE'S STIFF FIGHT

The Norwegian steamer s.s.
Stoviken (Captain G. B. Onarban) which left Calcutta on March 13 for Hong Kong and arrived here on Saturday at 9 a.m., was involved in a spectacular fire in the afternoon.

The Stoviken was moored to the B51 buoy, off Wanchai, when the fire broke out at 1 p.m. in No. 3 coal bunker, due to spontaneous combustion. Soon the flames had assumed a strong hold and burned fiercely, columns of smoke issuing from the ship within a few minutes.

Whilst the alarm was being given,
both by flag signals and on the ship's siren, the Officers and crew pluckily tackled the flames with the ship's fire-fighting apparatus, but these proved inadequate for a fire of such a nature and did not seem to make any impression on the flames.

The Fire Brigade, under Superintendent H. T. Brooks, answered the fire call immediately, and the No. 1 Fire-float was alongside the Stoviken within a few minutes. Then followed a stiff fight with the flames, which burned for about two hours and a half before they were brought under control, and it was almost 4 p.m. before the Firefloat was withdrawn.

Naval Assistance

In addition to the Firefloat, a party of Naval men and also local tugs belonging to the Dock Company went to the assistance of the Stoviken and rendered valuable service. Inspector Ogg and a detachment of the Water
Police were also early alongside on a Police launch, and were responsible for a good deal of salvage work.

Although the fire was fierce it only burned the ship's coal, most of which was consumed, whilst the remainder was under water, the bunker having been flooded before the flames were finally extinguished. There were 3,200 tons of coal in No. 3 coal bunker and 200 tons in No. 2. The extent of the damage has not yet been ascertained but the coal in No. 2 hold was thoroughly wet.
The flooding of the bunker had the effect of giving the ship a slight list,
and after the fire had been extinguished
it took some time to pump the water out.

Other parts of the ship escaped damage, except places near the bunkers, where the water caused a certain amount of damage.

Smouldering at Sea?

It is reported that the coal began smouldering whilst the ship was at sea, on March 25. Efforts were made to suppress an outbreak of fire, but the smouldering still continued and eventually took flame on Saturday, luckily,
after the ship had made port.
The agents of the Stoviken are Messrs. Wallen & Co., of Prince's Building.

HONG KONG TIDE

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 40 components for the better prediction of tides, from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations, taken at the Kowloon tidal observatory under the direction of Dr.
Dobereck during the years 1887, 1888
and 1889.

The times and heights are given for Kowloon, but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Aberdeen, the differences being very small.

The times of high and low-water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena being quite distinct.

ALL ABOUT HONG KONG

WHAT THE TOURIST SHOULD KNOW AND SEE

GUIDE FOR ISLAND AND MAINLAND

"Glorious Hong Kong." This apt description was used by the Bishop of London in bidding farewell to the Colony recently. And as he was more a missionary than a tourist in the ordinarily accepted sense of the word his impression of Hong Kong must be taken as it stands without any idea of comparison with other places in the itinerary of the pleasure-seeking globe trotter. But "glorious Hong Kong" can never mean anything to the visitor by liner who comes ashore merely to "stretch his legs" and to "see what there is to see" without any preconceived notions of arranging a systematic programme within the limited time at his disposal.

"Call at Cook's." Yes; that may sound like a way out. And if not Cook's then at the Hong Kong Hotel's Tourist Bureau, or the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's agency or the American Express Company. But—and there is always a "but" for the tourist in a strange land—great as is the work that these concerns do on behalf of the tourist, if each and every individual on a liner containing hundreds of passengers all resolved on the same course of action on landing in Hong Kong they would assuredly crowd out the enquiry offices of the afore-mentioned concerns. True; these prepare for tourist liners and arrange schedules of tours and time tables—some dividing the visitors into several personally conducted parties—but why should that information not be at the disposal of the tourist beforehand? That is the intention of the present "Tourist Supplement" to the China Mail.

A Word About Hong Kong
Of books and other literature on Hong Kong there is a plethora. Even to attempt to condense that information here might be wearisome to some, although welcome to others. There must be a happy mean. Statistics need not necessarily be dry-as-dust. Much depends on the manner of their presentation and their ability to grip the interest of the reader.

Every school boy knows that Hong Kong is a British Colony lying off the south-east coast of China at the estuary of the Chu-kiang River (commonly called the Canton River). The Colony is not confined to the Island; it includes a small portion of the mainland on the Peninsula of Kowloon and the New Territories. The capital of the Colony is called Victoria, and the extreme length of the Island is eleven miles and the breadth two comer. The Island is separated from the mainland by a narrow strait, which makes an excellent harbour the approaches to which from the ocean are dotted with green-capped islets that rival in beauty even the great harbour of Sydney. And even that beauty is eclipsed by the scenery on the Island itself and on the mainland.

The possibilities of sight-seeing on the part of the visitor are always, of course, circumscribed by the brevity of his stay in the port. With only a day at one's disposal the most must be made of the time so as to take in even in a fleeting manner as much as possible of the local sights. When a stay of two or even three days is made, then, naturally the visitor can pick and choose what he would like to see and to omit that which may not particularly appeal to him. As one man's meat may be another man's poison, so one type of scenery or one place of interest may draw a crowd and still leave others cold and impressionless. But no tourist can afford to leave out the ascent of the Peak, undertaking the journey by motor car to the Peak Hotel, thence by sedan chair to the Signal Station and returning by chair to the Hotel and making the descent by tram car.

Three Tours
Many suitable trips on the Island and in the New Territories could be suggested to the tourist here for a day or so. The following three are all easily accessible and have been drawn up so as to give the visitor a fair indication of the beauties of the Colony.

Tour 1
The party should start at about 11.45 a.m. by motor car from the centre of the town and proceed past the Lower Tram Station to Government House, the Dairy Farm, and Upper Road to Repulse Bay. (Continued on page 2.)

to five miles. There is a British Governor with a Legislative Council. The Colony is also the headquarters of the South China Command, British Army, and a naval station.

The Peak by Night
From the deck of the steamer the city of Victoria is overshadowed by a range of hills, called Victoria Peak, on which at night scintillate hundreds of electric lights, resembling a glimpse of fairyland. It is a sight that is never forgotten—a sight that can always enchant the oldest resident as well as the new-

miles.Tour 2Commencing from centre of town, via Lower Peak Tram Station and as above to Repulse Bay, thence the Peak Hotel via Stubbs-road.
Finishing with auto at the Peak Hotel.From the Peak Hotel the ascent by chair to the Flag Staff should not be missed. Descent to the City may be made by the Peak Tramway.
Chair and Tram fares are not included in the above fares.Tour 3Distance sixty miles; Time 3 1/2 hours. Commencing at Kowloon Ferry via Castle Peak, Fanling
Golf Course, Tai Po and Shatin, finishing at Kowloon Ferry.Round the IslandWhat has been well described as one of the most magnificent drives in the world is that by motor car round the Island. The route followed is from Queen's-road, past Government House and the Botanic Gardens, along Caine-road, Bon-ham-road, past the University of Hong Kong, along Pokfulam-road, Aberdeen-road, and Repulse Bay,
where a stop can be had for refreshments or the more enjoyable tiffin. Leaving Repulse Bay Hotel the journey is proceeded with to Stanley Bay, Tytamtuk Reservoir, and Sai Wan Gap and thence to Shaokwan. Within a short time Taikoo Dock is reached, and from there it is a very short drive back to the original point of departure.
The entire drive covers a distance of 26 miles, but the scenery enroute cannot adequately be described in mere prose. It has to be seen to be appreciated as it deserves. Next to the ascent and descent of the Peak it is a trip that no tourist should omit from his programme of sight-seeing.Other Places of InterestApart from motor launches that take the visitor to Stonecutters' Island and numerous inlets, abounding in most beautiful scenery, there is much to entertain, amuse and instruct without resort to vehicles. The Chinese curio shops and Indian stores cannot well be passed over by those in search of novelty or for a souvenir of their visit to this enchanted Isle.
There is "China Town," teeming with thousands of Chinese living in narrow streets where one can almost stretch hands across the "thoroughfare," and where glimpses
may be had of typical Chinese life
in all its varied phases.

A good combination is a bus or motor car drive to Aberdeen and a tour through the Chinese fishing village. If time permits there is also a quaint little hamlet, Appichau, which can be reached in a few minutes by sloop. The return journey from Aberdeen can be made by launch, in which case the scenery fringing the harbour approaches will be found very refreshing after the spell through the Chinese quarters of Aberdeen and Appichau.For the individual who cares not for the joys of motoring a casual walk through the heart of the city will reveal much of interest in the way of public buildings and statues, including—although some-way out—the University of Hong Kong. There are taxicabs and jinrikishas, not to mention sedan chairs, but in the case of the two latter the legal fare should always be ascertained beforehand as otherwise the "stranger within the gates" may find himself the victim of profiteering.Chairs and Jinrikisha FaresFor chairs the tariff is—two bearers—15 cents for the first ten minutes; 20 cents for a quarter of an hour; 30 cents for half an hour; 40 cents for one hour; and 25 cents for every subsequent hour. For four bearers the fares are exactly double, with the exception that every subsequent hour after the first is charged 40 cents.Jinrikisha charges are: 10 cents for 10 minutes; 20 cents for a quarter of an hour, 30 cents for half an hour; and 40 cents for an hour.Kowloon and New Territories

A reference to Kowloon has already been made in the third of the suggested tours—namely, to Castle Peak, Fanling, Tai Po and Shatin.A good afternoon's outing can be spent at Kowloon City, omnibuses to which run from the Star Ferry at Kowloon Point (10 cents fare from Hong Kong to Kowloon). En route a glimpse is afforded of the whole of the Kowloon Bay, with Lyomoon Pass in the distance.Eventually the granite wall of the old city of Kowloon will be reached, containing the old-time residence of the official representative of the Emperor of China.There is also a School for the Blind, where dainty articles may be purchased.Returning by a bus marked
"Yau-mat" the tourist can alight
in Jordan-road and spend an enjoyable time in King's Park, where arelaid out football, tennis, and bowls grounds for various Clubs and institutions.As an alternative a visit may be commended to Kowloon Tong, which lies off the main bus and motor road in Kowloon, namely, Nathan Road. This is destined to be a model settlement and garden city combined, and the self-contained houses, each with a strip of garden, are a distinct change from the row upon row of flats which the vehicles pass in Nathan and other roads in Kowloon.Lovers of lawn bowls are well catered for. Besides the rinks of the Club de Recreio at King's Park
there are bowling greens at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club, in Austin Road (off Nathan Road), the Kowloon Cricket Club, and the Kowloon Dock. Tennis can be had at many Club courts at King's Park, at the United Services Club (opposite King's Park), the Kowloon Cricket Club, and the Kowloon Bowling Green Club. Football is played at King's Park and on the ground of the Kowloon Football Club, facing the harbour in Chatham Road. Cricket is provided at King's Park and at the Kowloon Cricket Club.Sport in Hong KongOn the Island there is no end to the variety of outdoor sport to be indulged in or watched, the principal ground being at Happy Valley, which can be reached in a very short time by tramcar, taxicab, or motor car, not to mention the slower jinrikisha if time is no object. There is a fine Racecourse, where races are held at various periods from the middle of February to the beginning of December.

Of other sports to be had at "home" of local cricket is the Hong Kong Cricket Club opposite Murray Barracks in Queen's Road. It is on this ground that interport matches are played, teams coming once in two years from Shanghai and less frequently from Malaya.Where to Dine or StayFor the tourist cooped up at sea for days on end there are many facilities for lunch (or tiffin)

and dinner, including the Hong Kong Hotel in Pedder Street; Lane
Crawford's Restaurant, in Des Voeux Road (along which the tramcars run); also the Kowloon Hotel and the Peninsula Hotel in Kowloon (a few minutes' drive from the Ferry in a jinrik-sha).In Des Voeux Road and other streets there are many Chinese restaurants for those who like to sample Chinese dishes.Miscellaneous InformationThe Radio Telegraph Office (near the Post Office) is open day and night for the transmission and reception of radio messages and for reporting vessels entering the harbour. The charge to most vessels is 30 cents per word with a minimum charge of $3.There are branches of the Eastern Extension, Telegraph Company and the Northern Telegraph Company in Connaught Road (facing the water front and just beyond the Hong Kong Club). These are open day and night for the transmission of cablegrams to any part

I SEE EVERYTHING

The Seven-Eyed "Kwanyon" exhibited at

MESSRS. KOMOR & KOMORThe Sculptor of China is the oldest art we know and lately figures and animals have been found which are so perfect in design and life like attitude that they well compare with the best period of Greece. There is a pair of "Kwanyon" exhibited at Messrs. Komor & Komor's art gallery corner of Ice House Street and Chater Road of Thibetian origin supposed to be of the Sung Dynasty A.D. 959-1273. They are 4 feet high and wonderfully preserved the right hand to right knee suggests "I swear by the earth"
"The left hand with the eye upwards in attitude of teaching denotes."

I see everything, I see everything.

I promise! I warn! I give you all but

Keep to my instructions.

It is remarkable what influence these figures have on everyone who see them especially ladies seem to be hypnotised and come again and again to see them and as they say feel happy and contented after gazing at the Kwanyon.It is said that Buddhist figures influence certain persons and according to Chinese belief a Buddhist figure which fascinates you is sure to bring luck, health, and happiness to you if you possess it and the great sage Mr. Komor tells some remarkable authentic stories of Buddhas which changed the life of many people through the influence of Buddhist figures.It may be the pleasing features or artistic attitude which wins the nerves and we would recommend you if you feel nervous or you are out of luck to go and see Messrs. Komor & Komor's well known art gallery and find out what truth there is in this Oriental superstition.Messrs. Komor & Komor's art gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the long landing of the Kowloon ferry.

HONG KONG

Facts About The Colony

Hong Kong is an island about 10 miles long and from 2 to 6 1/2 miles broad, with a total area of 32 square miles; it lies close to the mainland, being separated at one point by a narrow strait (Lyemooen) not more than a quarter-mile wide, and was first occupied by Great Britain in January, 1841, and was formally ceded by the Treaty of Nanking in 1842; British Kowloon was subsequently acquired by the Peking Convention of 1860; and the New Territories, being a peninsula in the southern part of the Kwangtung province, by a lease signed June 9, 1898. The whole colony comprises an area of about 891 square miles, with a population (1921) of 662,200 (1925 est. 874,420). The non-Chinese residents, excluding naval and military, numbered about 15,200 (1925 est. 16,500).

A Free Port

The capital of the colony is Victoria, which lies along the northern shore of the island, facing the mainland; and between the mainland and the city is the harbour, which is one of the finest in the world, with a water area of some 10 square miles. With the exception of liquor and tobacco the port is free, and is fortified by 22 batteries, excellent locks, capable of handling the largest vessels for the purpose of repairs. There is considerable ship-repairing and construction industry, shipbuilding, and the manufacture of various goods.

Government. A light railway runs through the fertile valleys of the north-east portion of the New Territories from Fanling to Sha-tau-kok, a distance of 7 miles. Good roads connect the principal districts with the railway.

Climate

The island is broken in shape and mountainous, the highest point being Victoria Peak, which is about 1,820 feet high. The Peak District is a favourite place of residence, and is reserved for Europeans. The new Territories contain peaks from 1,800 to 3,000 feet. The hot season lasts from May to October. During the winter months, from November to March, the climate is cooler, drier, and more invigorating. The average daily maximum temperature ranges from 87 degrees in July to 63 degrees in February, and the average daily minimum temperature from 73 degrees in July to 55 degrees in February. The average annual rainfall is 84 in., of which no less than 75 per cent. falls between May and September, when the S.W. monsoon prevails.

Vast Trade

Hong Kong is the centre of a vast trade in many kinds of produce, chiefly camphor, coal, cottons, gunnies, hides, iron and steel goods, leather, matches, oils, rice, silks, sugar, tea and tin.

Much encouragement is given by the Government to education in the colony. In 1924 there were 1,079 schools, of which 60 were Government schools, and 1,019 were private schools. The Government also maintains a large number of hospitals, and a large police force.

TEN TIPS

Which Tourists Should Observe

HELPFUL ADVICE

PORT REGULATIONS—ARRIVAL

Landing at most ports is prohibited until after the ship has been passed by the Health, Immigration and Police authorities. Due notice will be given regarding attendance of Cruise members and delay and discomfort to all will be avoided by prompt attention to these important matters.

Party Registration
Cruise Members are respectfully requested to note the following, which will apply generally when making up parties for shore excursions:

It is realized that Cruise Members will wish, when travelling ashore, to move with friends. For this reason it is not desirable that allotments to Party A, B, or C, etc., should be made at the Cruise Office without giving members an opportunity to voice their preference for one party or another. Prior to reaching each port, shore programmes will be distributed, to study shore and party arrangements. Members should then decide with whom they would like to go sightseeing and register for the party of their choice. As the various parties are restricted in number, party allotments will be made in the order in which applications are received.

Timely notice will be given members of the date, place and hour at which each port party registration will be opened. When registration is made party allotment cards will be issued.

Non-Attendance at Party Registrations

Shore excursion features are identical for all parties. To many, therefore, it will be a matter of indifference with which party they move. Should Cruise Members not register for any party, it will be assumed by the Cruise Office that the matter of party allotment has been left in their hands and allotment will be made and party card sent to member's room.

Shore Excursions
To avoid congestion and confusion and to ensure their own comfort, Cruise Members are requested to adhere to the hour shown for the movement of their party and to move only with that party.

Disembarkation

Members will best study their own comfort and convenience by avoiding crowding in the corridors or at the gangway. Fifteen minutes before the assembly hour for each party, a gong will be sounded throughout the ship. Members should remain on deck or other convenient place pending such notification.

Motor Cars
In filling motor cars for shore excursions, the Cruise Management work, wherever possible, on the rule of placing four persons in each seven-seated car and three persons in each five-seated car, in addition to the driver. Cruise Members constituting themselves into small party groups for motor car trips should proceed ashore promptly together to give themselves every opportunity of securing the desired space, keeping in view car loading as already stated.

It is respectfully notified that conveyances cannot be held for those arriving late, as the company comfort and convenience of all must be studied by the Management.

The co-operation of Members of the Cruise is earnestly solicited by the Management, looking to the convenience, comfort and pleasure of all concerned.

ADORABLE CURIO SHOPS

Hong Kong's chief attraction is its adorable curio shops. As you step out of the revolving door of the Hong Kong Hotel into the dry cold which is so stimulating to the visitor, the first object of attention is perhaps the flower market, whose wealth of colour catches the eye at once, but, as you make eagerly in the direction of Flower Street, the fascinating shop windows burst upon you in their full glory each one more entrancing than the last. The variety of articles made to tempt money from the pocket of a Scrooge is amazing and what is still more so is that in all this wealth of choice there is scarcely an un-beautiful object. What can one buy? For the collector there is porcelain, old and new, carved ivory, Japanese and Cantonese, enamel work, lacquer, jade, paintings on silk and on rice paper, and among modern work, trifles in Chinese silver and the rather beautiful clear glass fashionable just now. The house-proud may revel in blackwood furniture, Foochow lacquer, lovely Tientsin carpets, or silk embroidered cushions, while the merely vain will sigh for necklaces of Peking crystal, jade, ivory and amber, for gorgeous Canton shawls or for delicately carved ivory toilet sets. There is something for every taste and for every purse. It is, however, emphatically a case of "Caveat Emptor" for whatever piece of porcelain the unwary visitor admires promptly becomes Ming or Sung, very cheap, $50. Now it has to be remembered that Chinese porcelain is a life study and not to be lightly undertaken by a novice, that real Ming or Sung would cost nearer $500 than $50, and that experts from all over the world are commissioned by the big dealers to buy fine pieces as they come on the market. In the circumstances it is unlikely that the amateur will make any sensational bargains, and the best line to take is to select something you really like and, disregarding the fancy price asked, offer what it is worth to you. You may not get all the lovely things you covet but you will get a proportion of them. There is one shop, however, where prices are more or less fixed, and one may obtain a piece of genuine Sung for $900 or so; it contains specimens of every kind of object de vertu that China produces and is well worth a visit even from those who have no intention of buying.

Well Designed
Blackwood furniture will attract many. It seems marvelously cheap in Hong Kong compared with Singapore and the small pieces are easily carried back. It must be confessed that much of the modern blackwood furniture being made now is atrocious and too many drawing-rooms in Hong Kong are filled with its funeral connotations to their utter confusion, nevertheless much of it is well made, well designed and well carved and an ounce of taste on the buyer's part will procure some charming examples. Jade is another commodity over which the novice stands a good chance of being really well "done down" and would be wise to seek the help of a connoisseur before spending much money.

It is possible even in the three days allowed to go to Canton where ivory and wood-carving is carried on, and buy there, the present generalization is favourable to the British and the trip can be made by steamer returning the following afternoon. There is much to see there but most of the really good work has been done in Hong Kong. The time taken for the trip is well repaid by the opportunity of seeing the interior of the great city and the chance of buying some of the best of the work.

IMPERIAL SCREEN

Presentation Screen of the Ching Lung Dynasty Exhibited at

MESSRS. KOMOR & KOMOR

It is a rare occasion to be able to buy a Presentation Screen as such are kept by the families with great devotion. These screens are on a wonderfully carved blackwood stand and frame is made of the celebrated Ching Lung Lacquer ornamented with cloisonnee of the same period showing the seven coloured rock, the 3000 year old peach tree with the peaches on it, the Stag and the Bat, the seven colours on the rock denotes "Beauty," the Peaches which bloom only once in 3,000 years means "Long Life" the Stag means "Wealth and Longevity" the Bat means "Happiness."

The colours of the cloisonnee have a wonderful lustre, it seems the secret of mixing the colours of Ching Lung has been lost and cannot be brought out again, it is possible the age has something to do with it, or that the mixing of the enamels is a lost art.

The pair of this beautiful screen are even better preserved and show the Pine Tree, the Stork, the Stag and the seven coloured rock in a most artistic arrangement.

The roof ornaments of the old temples show mostly the eight Apostles. One of them "TUNG FUNG SZO" (the apostle of longevity) is represented with a peach of life (SZEEN TAU) in his hand coming to the earth to reward all those who have been charitable and believed in him so that they may have long life and happiness. There are two figures of "TUNG FUNG SZO" exhibited at KOMOR'S which are life like and interpret the idea of the peach tree on the screen. There are also other apostles to be seen and temple roof-ornaments of all devices.

We do not know of any museum or private collection which could pride itself on anything as beautiful and rare as these two screens are, and recommend all who are interested in old Chinese art to visit Messrs. KOMOR & KOMOR'S art gallery, St. George's Building, near the landing of the Hong Kong-Kowloon ferry.

For other useful information concerning Hong Kong the tourist may be recommended to purchase a copy of the "Dollar Directory" published at 3A, Wyndham Street. Passengers should keep in touch with Home and local affairs by purchasing the "China Mail"—the oldest newspaper in the Colony—which is published daily at 10 cents per copy; or the "Hong Kong Sunday Herald" published early on Sunday mornings.

Canton

The commercial Capital and most interesting City of South China, is in direct communication with Hong Kong by steamer and railway. There are daily services of steamers both directions. The journey is about 6 1/2 to 8 hours by steamer, according to steamer and tide, and 4 1/2 hours by train.

On arrival in Canton visitors are met by an experienced and competent guide who has conducted the principal visitors through this fascinating City for many years. The tour usually embraces Chun-ka-chi Ancestral Temple, Temples of the 500, Genl. City of the Dead, Kingfisher's feather, Work-Jade, Blue-jade, Picture Painters, Flower-Pots, Jade Stone Street, Old Embroidery Shop and Bat Wing Street, etc.

For the guidance of those whose time is limited, the following itinerary is given.

One Whole Day in Canton

Leave Hong Kong 10 p.m.
Arrive Canton 7 to 8 a.m.
Leave Canton 4.30 p.m.
Arrive Hong Kong (about) 11 to 12 p.m.

The fare provides first class travel tickets, breakfast, lunch and dinner, service of competent private Guide for sightseeing by sedan chair to City of the Dead, Flower Pagoda, Ancestral Temple, etc.

Tours of longer duration and including passage by 8 a.m. steamer may be arranged. Fares on application.

Macao

A Portuguese Colony and the pioneer settlement of the Far East, being founded in 1557, it is a picturesque spot at the mouth of the Canton River, with the ruins of San Paulo, Camoes' Gardens and Grotto, and Fan-tai Gambling Saloons.

Steamers leave Hong Kong on week days at 8 a.m. and 10 p.m. Passage 4 hours. Single journey $4 and return $7.

There is also a special excursion to Macao every Sunday leaving Hong Kong at 8 a.m. returning at 8.30 p.m. Return fare $1.00 and excursion $1.50.

SHOPS TO VISIT

WHERE TO OBTAIN THE BEST VALUES

THE SILK CENTRES

THE BOMBAY STORE

Famous for its low prices and high quality, the Bombay Silk Store is located in D'Aguilar-street, up the slight incline from Queen's Road.

They give real excellent value in all their goods at the Bombay Store. Their stock, which is second to none in this part of the world, comprise houri coats, coolie coats, Mandarin coats, embroidered shawls and silk kimonos of very pretty workmanship and designs, and made of the best material obtainable.

Dresses are to be found here in a wide range of choice, as well as pyjamas, shirts and underwears, and if the ready-to-wear ones do not suit you, orders for made-to-measure garments will be accepted for execution within 24 hours.

The Pongee suits made to order by this store are well known for their quality of material plus good fit and stylish cut.

D. CHELLARAM

D. Chellaram, in Pedder Street, opposite the Hong Kong Hotel, has a fine stock of beautiful Chinese shawls which are specially selected by their manager who is a specialist in this line. These shawls comprise a large variety which should satisfy the most exacting purchaser. The same applies to their exquisite Mandarin coats and skirts, the famous old style dress of China. Houri coats and Japanese kimonos are also stocked, each beautifully embroidered with elaborate designs too pretty to describe.

Silks are also to be found in these stores in great variety—the best products of Japan. China and India—both in plain colours and printed. Their brocades and crepes are also excellent materials for ladies' dresses, etc.

This Store specialises in ladies' hose and men's socks, while its tailoring department undertakes to execute orders for ladies' dresses and pyjamas, and men's shirts and collars within 12 hours, fit being guaranteed.

Other appealing goods worth examining in these stores are beautiful Egyptian tapestry and Persian rugs, as good as any obtainable anywhere else in the East.

KASHMIR SILK STORE

Opposite the Queen's Theatre, in Queen's Road, will be found the Kashmir Silk Store, which is also known as the "Palace of Shawls," a claim of which they are justly proud. Their wonderful display of beautiful silk shawls is dazzling and gives one a thrill of pleasure to inspect them. It is a joy to handle them and feel their fine, soft texture, and the desire to own one is irresistible.

Other fine things to be found in this shop are kimonos, houri coats, Persian coats, embroidered silk lingerie, and all qualities of silks in lengths suitable for many purposes.

KWONG WOO

This shop is described as a wholesale Silk Store, but one has only to enter the store to satisfy oneself that there are other attractive objects for sale. Kwong Woo is a dealer in Chinese curios and all kinds of silks, crepe shawls, embroidered linen blouses and table cloths. These silks are sold at a very reasonable price and a purchase would bring great pleasure to the recipient of such gifts. All the latest Eastern patterns in pure silk can be bought here.

The store has been in existence since 1841 and can boast of a very good reputation.

There is also a very good selection of jewellery and gold and silver ware. The jade is of a very high quality, and guaranteed to be genuine. The selection of ivory displayed should prove interesting to the visitor. In fact, the whole store is a miniature treasure island.

K. K. MAHTANI

Mr. Mahtani will be pleased to welcome tourists at his silk and curio store at 4, On Lan Street. Whatever you will see a fine selection of shawls, houri coats and Ladies Underwear and Ladies Dresses.

PIONEER SILK STORE

The Pioneer Silk Store, to give its full name, is situated on the 2nd floor of the China Building, Queen's Road.

It has a specially selected stock of hand-made, embroidered shawls, houri coats, and Ladies Underwear, which are of the highest quality. All have been made by hand.

signs are Mandarin coats and skirts, silk embroidered kimonos, houri coats, Persian coats and happy coats, all of the very latest styles and especially selected with the greatest care to combine quality with value.

Silk scarves are to be found here in large quantities and colours to suit all tastes. Materials for dresses comprise Japanese, Chinese and Indian silks of very fine texture, brocades, crepes, etc.

At short notice, even within 24 hours, the Pioneer's tailoring department is able to take orders for ladies' silk underwear, men's shirts, pyjamas, etc. Their workmanship and fit are beyond reproach.

TAJMAHAL SILK STORE

This newly opened Indian Silk Store, of which Mr. S. Narain is the proprietor, is fast gaining in popularity on account of its fair dealing—giving you quality goods at reasonable prices. You will find this little shop up Flower Street, some 200 yards beyond the flower stalls, directly opposite the China Mail office.

They have a fine selection of new silks, just arrived, representing the latest in fashionable colours and designs—Fuji, brocade, georgette, spun crepe, crepe de Chine, etc. Ready-to-wear ladies' garments include crepe de Chine embroidered "undies" and pyjamas; whilst for men there are washing silk shirts, pyjamas, and neckties with handkerchiefs to match.

Other things in this store of interest to ladies are Kayser hose in all shades, exquisite shawls, kimonos, houri coats, and many fancy goods and toys which represent the latest in novelties. This store is also agents in Hong Kong for the well-known "Ohio" cream, hair and down remover.

FANCY GOODS

CHINA FANCY GOODS CO.

Hand-made Canton and Irish linen drawwork, embroideries, silk, Spanish shawls, ladies' silk undies, Mandarin coats and skirts, kimonos, ivory, cloisonne, pewter, lacquer and damascene ware, etc., are all to be seen at the China Fancy Goods Co., 33, Queen's Road Central (China Building). Once you have appreciated the exquisite workmanship on the cloth and silk wear and the craftsmanship on the hardware (ivory, etc.) you will buy—not at a loss to yourself, but as a gain for the prices are reasonable. Beautiful fantasies in the form of silken wear or ivory that you have before never thought capable of originating from the brain of man, you will see and perhaps buy. In any case it is well worth your while to pay a call to this shop. It holds limitless treasures.

CHINA HANDICRAFT CO.

Inspection is cordially invited by the China Handicraft Co. China Building, Queen's Road Central, of their fine display of native goods.

The Company are manufacturers and exporters of hand-made silk embroideries, which are of an exquisite beauty that is not easily surpassed.

They are also dealers in beautiful shawls of rare designs, finely carved ivory ornaments, well-made silk undies, and quality drawn-work.

Other high class goods obtainable at this store are lacquer, pewter and cloisonne wares, and last, but by no means least, Blackwood furniture of essential Chinese design beautifully carved and polished, and strongly made.

Prices here are fair and the quality of goods decidedly of the finest, and value is given for money no matter how small the article bought.

JEWELS AND CURIOS

CHUI YUEN

The difference between feasting one's eyes upon the Crown jewels in the Tower of London and upon those jewels in 39A, Queen's Road Central, is that in the case of the former one pays for the privilege, and in the case of the latter one is cordially invited to do so.

At this store one can have a glimpse of all the jewels of the East laid out in the most impressive manner. When visiting Hong Kong, no one should fail to examine the display of jewellery consisting of jade, pearls, a gates, crystal, Coral, old ivory, cornelian, cloisonne, lapis lazuli, arquesies, some, amber beads, and all manner of stores.

The repair of all jewellery, at a moderate cost, is undertaken; and work will be completed even at six hours' notice.

KOMOR'S

(Komor & Komor)

A visit to Komor & Komor's Art gallery is recommended to all visitors to Hong Kong. The establishment is under the management of Mr. Komor, an authority on Chinese and Japanese art who joined the firm (Kuhn & Komor) forty years ago and whose collection is a household word under curio collectors.

The collection on exhibition is the finest in the Far East. You find articles there for prices ranging from one dollar up to thousands of dollars. Every article is marked in plain figures and visitors are always received with courtesy whether they buy or not. Their packing and shipping department guarantees that everything sent by them must arrive at any part of the world in perfect order.

Komor's art gallery is situated near the Hong Kong ferry corner of Chater Road and the fine window display draws all day and night big crowds of sight-seers. This firm, established since 1867, is one of the oldest in Hong Kong.

A jade screen in fine carving, supposed to be of the Ming dynasty, in very fine wood and gold mounting, will be the envy of many visitors who collect works of art. The wonderful silk lacquered Foochow screen will surely be admired by all visitors, and the unique collection of cloisonne and ivory work is worth the visit to this well known establishment.

LOONG SHING

Loong Shing, jewellers of repute whose premises are at No. 48, Queen's Road Central have a collection of genuine Jade jewellery which is difficult to beat.

The word "genuine" is used emphatically where Loong Shing is concerned. The stress is necessary because of the presence of imitation jades on the market, and one cannot be too careful when purchasing Jades.

The colour of the false stones is so attractive that not only foreigners but Chinese also, are often "taken in" by the fakes. It is therefore wise to deal only with reliable shops.

There is no doubt as to the reliability of Loong Shing, as one of the oldest jewellers' establishment at present in existence in Hong Kong. This shop came into being in 1864 and during a period of over 60 years in business it has gained a reputation not only for reliability but also for fair dealing.

All their fine jade jewellery—and there is a fine range to choose from—are offered at prices which are surprisingly reasonable.

Go to Loong Shing if it's jade that you are after.

LOCK HING

Here is another of Hong Kong's long established and reliable Chinese firm who have specialised in dealing in Chinese curios since 1870. Some of the pieces to be found in this shop cannot be duplicated. Everything is absolutely genuine, and, best of all, the prices are competitive.

Lock Hing's also deal in fine Shanghai and Canton silks, grass cloths, embroideries, crepes, chic shawls, and ivory, bronze, lacquered, cloisonne ware, porcelain and ornaments of gold and silver, and the work of master craftsmen. Gold and silver jewellery can also be made to order.

They are also manufacturers of Blackwood furniture both inlaid and carved chairs, tables and stands, all well made and beautifully finished. The shop is at No. 33, Queen's Road Central.

SHOPS TO VISIT

WHERE TO OBTAIN THE BEST VALUES

WAI KEE

Mr. Wai Kee has been in the curio trade at the Queen's Road corner of the Hong Kong Hotel for upwards of forty years remembering globe-trotters who revisit Hong Kong after long intervals. He is an expert on things Chinese and has an excellent variety of jade, precious stones, antiques, etc.

WANG HING

For gold and silver ware of Chinese design and workmanship, visit Wang Hing's shop. This long standing firm of jewellers have premises at No. 10, Queen's Road Central, very near to the Hong Kong Hotel. They have a reputation amongst foreign residents for fair dealing. The jade stones obtainable here are among the best to be found in Hong Kong, absolutely flawless and of delicate hues. Everything here, from the smallest trinket to intricate silver junks, etc., are all the product of experienced Chinese craftsmen.

Wang Hing's prices are competitive whilst the goods are above average quality.

JADE STORE

THE CHINA JADE CO.

The most reliable dealers in jade are The China Jade Company, whose shop is in China Building, Queen's Road Central.

At this store necklaces of pure jade in many different styles can be purchased at very moderate prices. There is always a very good display of bracelets, bangles, pendants, the pins and cuff links. Having purchased anything at this store one can always depart with the satisfaction of knowing that the name of the China Jade Company is as good as a guarantee for the genuineness of the purchased goods.

WAH KEE

Situated No. 38, Queen's Road Central, Wah Kee, dealers in jewellery and ivory offer the tourist a very wide range of choice. Ladies desiring jade necklaces, pendants, or bracelets need only take a look to realize the Oriental artistry in these adornments.

Gentlemen can buy at a very reasonable price. Tie pins or cuff links that would fetch a very high price in the Occident. No visitor to Hong Kong should miss the opportunity of seeing genuine jade made up in such an attractive style.

There are numbers of exquisitely carved ivory balls. One inside the other, some have as many as thirty or forty inside one another. These novelties are well worth buying as mementoes of the East. Ivory carved chess sets can also be purchased at an extraordinarily low cost.

There is no doubt that a visit to Wah Kee's would be very attractive and very productive.

MISCELLANEOUS

EXCELSIOR BOOK STORE

The Excelsior Book Store, with branches in D'Aguilar-street, off Queen's Road Central, at the Hong Kong Hotel, and in the Peninsula Hotel, Kowloon, is one of Hong Kong's leading news agents and book sellers. It has in stock a fine range of best sellers by both British and American authors, and receive by every mail from the United Kingdom and the States all the leading periodicals, journals, and magazines which appeal to all tastes.

For reading matter on board ship during the voyage go to the Excelsior Store for your needs.

HIP SON & COMPANY

Fancy oiled paper and cloth parcels can be bought at 37, Queen's Road Central at very little expense. The oiled parcel is a recent invention of the Hip Son and Company, and would prove great attraction in the Homelands.

The engraving on the brass ware for purchase is done entirely by hand and shows the skill of the Chinese craftsman. The carved wooden figures representing important personages in Chinese history, are beautifully finished off, and there is no doubt that people in the west would prize gifts of this nature.

The Shen Shiao An/Lang Kee gold lacquerware are well worth buying, and these, though going through a very elaborate process are sold at a ridiculously cheap price. The company has been awarded many times medals for its fine work.

HONG KONG HOTEL

During your short sojourn here, you will find that the Hong Kong Hotel and the Peninsula Hotel are the best and most aristocratic places to make your temporary headquarters.

The Hong Kong Hotel is situated in the heart of the city. Always well equipped with the most courteous staff of guides, you will be enabled to do your shopping without being "taken in" by any unscrupulous native shop-keepers. On the other side of the harbour is the Peninsula Hotel, run by the same company. There you will find the same courtesy and service.

TABAQUERIA FILIPINA

The Tabaqueria Filipina, the noted smokers' suppliers, is situated in the Asiatic Building opposite the Hong Kong Hotel.

In this excellently fitted emporium, you are assured fair prices, fresh stock, fine quality and faithful service, which has been their jealously guarded motto ever since they opened shop in Hong Kong.

The stocks of smokers' requisites carried in this store are large and varied. They have all the best known brands of American tobaccos, and cigarettes in stock, and they are also famous for the lines of Manila cigars which they carry.

Pipes of the best makes in sets and singly are to be found in a large variety to choose from. Other requisites are cigar cutters, tobacco pouches, cigar and cigarette cases, patent lighters, fancy ash trays, cigar and cigarette boxes, and every thing imaginable in the tobaccoist's line. All goods are of the best qualities obtainable and priced to suit everyone.

YUE SHING

If you have a book which had undergone some wear and tear during your trip, let Yue Shing, 47, Queen's Road Central re-bind it for you. This well-known and reliable Chinese firm, which has been in existence in Hong Kong since 1884, can do high class work accurately and neatly. They also supply requisite worthy of you. Before sailing be sure you have everything with which to write that letter home, about your travels.

WORKS OF ART

Hong Kong is the best place in the Far East for picking up good specimens of Native Culture-Craft in endless variety, which comes under the head of Art and Curios. Of course the difficulty lies in not knowing anything about such treasures, for which ten times their value may be asked, or even more. "Kienlung" Vase About 1750

MADAME HANAU. ROUND THE CINEMAS

Friends to Furnish Her Bail.

HUNGER STRIKE ENDED.

Paris, Yesterday. Madame Hanau's friends are likely to furnish 500,000 francs towards bail, and her Gazette Du France creditors the balance.—Reuter.

Earlier Cable.

Paris, Saturday. Madame Hanau, who caused a sensation by escaping from a hospital and returning to prison after hunger striking for a long period, has been provisionally released on bail of 800,000 francs.

She protested against the amount of bail which, she declares, prevented her release. She said she had given up all her property to her creditors and had nothing left.

She has, however, abandoned her hunger strike. Her case is to come up before the Correctional Court to-day.—Reuter.

CURRENCY.

Administration of Fund. The administration of the Fund and of the gold standard is to be entrusted to a Currency Department in the Ministry of Finance. An examination of the Fund may be made at any time by the three bankers' associations of Shanghai, by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce of Shanghai or by the Central Bank.—Reuter's Pacific Service.

Press Criticism.

Shanghai, Yesterday. The China Press, in an editorial this morning caustically criticising the Kemmerer report, stresses the "pathetic obituary notice" therein of the six financial commissions that predeceased Kemmerer's.

It says that the "project" is surprisingly similar to the methods utilised by the United States in the Philippines in 1903 and 1905.

The China Press is frankly and entirely sceptical of a gold standard scheme, remarking that there is nothing substantial upon which the project can be erected.

"Mythical Unit."

A mythical gold unit has been conjured up in the imagination of impractical theorists and upon this has been built an imposing edifice of enormous potential seigniorage profits. "The report evidences faith and hope, but these will hardly produce parity in gold," continues the comment and adds that it is a dismal task to search for either inspiration or commercial clarity in this plethora of words.

One appears to be wandering in a wonderland with Alice and some financial mad-hatter. The report postulates nothing new and at the most certainly offers no remedy for the national bankruptcy that appears imminent.

Nanking's Opportunity.

The newspaper asks whether Nanking will remain serenely indifferent to the financial malady that surely and swiftly is destroying commerce and confidence and adds that it is within the power of Nanking to re-establish firmly the national currency. No better use of the executive prerogative could be made than to impose immediately a duty on cargoes of silver being dumped from abroad in the overstocked market in China.

The editorial concludes that to-day Chinese bankers and merchants, menaced with destruction, are unanimous that action identical with that of America is imperatively necessary if China is to be saved from financial death.

The other morning papers do not comment on the report.—Reuter.

ITALIAN ART. Value of the Recent Exhibition

Rugby, Yesterday. The Government last night gave a banquet to mark the success which attended the recently concluded Italian Art Exhibition, which was visited by over 500,000 people.

Lord Parmoor expressed the deep gratitude of the Government and the people of Great Britain primarily to the Italian Government and to all the others who had made the Exhibition possible. It had brought together the works of Italian Art both from private and public sources, chiefly from Italy, but also from all parts of the world, and the museums of France, Germany, Hungary, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, Sweden, the United States, and Canada. The Exhibition was a great success, and the Government was proud to have it in London.

The Italian Ambassador, the Duke of Salaparuta, and the Italian Minister of Education, the Count of Spreti, were present at the banquet. The Duke of Salaparuta made a speech in which he expressed his gratitude to the British Government for having allowed the Italian Art Exhibition to be held in London.

"New York Night" for the Queen's.

WILD PARTY SCENES.

A veritable blaze of colour modernistic designs in furniture and drapes, triangular rugs, and cubistic fish feature the wild party scenes of United Artists' "New York Nights." Norma Talmadge's first talking and musical picture venture, opening its run at the Queen's Theatre on Wednesday.

To make this a truly modern set, no small or large item was allowed to be out of character. A cubistic piano, with legs that rise from small points to flat planes a foot wide and coloured in red and black is one of the unusual touches.

Another is the rug which has geometric designs in brilliant hues and is triangular in shape. The wall paper is in large pastelled squares of sympathetic colours.

William Cameron Menzies, art director for United Artists, designed this unusual set, one of the most spectacular of its kind ever constructed for talking pictures.

The story is a virile and humorous account of the trials and tribulations of the song-writing and chorus-girl fraternity along New York's Tin Pan Alley.

Under Lewis Milestone's direction, the spice of Broadway's picturesque colloquialisms was caught.

"SHOW PEOPLE."

Studio life, its pleasures and its work in Hollywood, where Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, First National, Paramount, and United Artists Studios are situated, is brought to the screen by King Vidor, in "Show People," which is being screened at the World Theatre to-day only.

The famous comedian, and comedienne, William Haines and Marion Davies, take the Chief roles.

In this interesting film one is given glimpses of John Gilbert, Douglas Fairbanks, Lew Cody, Charles Chaplin, Karl Dane and George K. Arthur. Norma Talmadge and Norma Shearer are amongst numerous other extras.

"NOW WE'RE IN THE AIR"

Two Americans disguised as Scottish Highlanders enlist as aviators at a French airport, and are sentenced to death as German spies.

Only Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton could appear to advantage in such a ridiculous situation. And they do so in "Now We're in the Air" the new Paramount comedy which had its first local showing at the Majestic Theatre, Kowloon, last night.

Here is a comedy that has everything—good photography, good direction, capable stars, and most remarkable, a good story. The latter anomaly may be laid at the door of Monte Brice, Keene Thompson, and Tom J. Geraghty. Frank Strayer directed the picture.

It is a good thing for the Majestic Theatre that the laughs in this nonsense opera are so evenly spaced. Hysteria, with possible serious consequences to the patrons, would be the result if they were not. Beery and Hatton have done the impossible and topped all their previous successes, "Behind the Front," "We're in the Navy Now," and "Firemen Save My Child."

Beery and Hatton became aviators when their clothes were blown off in front of a battery of aeroplane propellers on the testing blocks at a flying field.

They fall in love with twin sisters, one of whom has been raised in Germany and the other in France. Many of their difficulties arise over their inability to tell their sweethearts apart, which is not surprising when it is considered that the same Louise Brooks plays both parts capably and charmingly.

The "gags" are new and frequent throughout the picture and will raise Beery and Hatton to a still higher plane as laugh purveyors. They have splendid support in the cast, which includes Malcolm Waite, as the German spy, Duke Martin as the top sergeant, hard boiled as usual, Emilie Chautard, and Russell Simpson.

"Now We're in the Air" is good for a laugh in any language.

CITY OF SYDNEY. Forced Down Near Weymouth Safe.

Sydney, Saturday. Early misfortune has met the twenty-year-old African Smith, who is accompanied by a man named Shiers, who are attempting a flight to England. They reached Sydney yesterday, but were forced down near Weymouth Safe.

The two men were seen by a patrol of police, who were alerted by a report of a plane crash. The plane was seen to be in flames as it fell from the sky. The two men were rescued by a boat from the Weymouth Safe.

The two men were taken to a hospital, where they were treated for their injuries. The plane was found to be a biplane, and was carrying a large amount of cargo. The two men were identified as being from the Weymouth Safe.

The two men were released after a short stay in hospital. They were taken back to the Weymouth Safe, where they were held for a short time. They were then released and allowed to return to their home in Africa.

LESSON-SERMON

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hong Kong

"Reality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, March 30. The Golden Text was: "The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations" (Psalms 33:11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Thus saith the Lord, the King of Israel, and his redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have I not told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God: I know not any" (Isa. 44:6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Bible: "The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and he hath strengthened me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me: because of the multitude of iniquities which they have committed against me, he hath not removed his anger from me" (Psalms 124:1-4).
